

Chepstow Methodist Church House Groups

We believe that belonging to a house group that meets in someone's home is a valuable and enriching part of our Christian life and an important part of our Methodist Tradition. In addition it is a great way to deepen our faith and build fellowship.

We have eight house groups, meeting either weekly or fortnightly in members' homes (except for a weekly one at the church with a crèche) and their numbers vary from five to thirteen members.

The groups can be following different studies from each other at any one time, due to the various group dynamics, but benefit from group leader meetings, where study experiences are shared and recommendations are made.

Anyone looking to move forward in their spiritual life and understanding of the Christian Gospel and to enjoy Christian fellowship in one of our house groups should contact:

We are happy to try and arrange meetings at various times and places.
